Full advisory services - Andep

In making our recommendations to you, we rely on the information that you have supplied us and our general knowledge of financial products.

We do not provide any monitoring of your portfolio and provide advice only when specifically requested by you.

Our income is generated through hourly fees charged for interviewing and reporting on your affairs. We do not offer free consultations. Senior adviser fees are at the rate of $470 plus GST per hour, adviser fees of $353 plus GST per hour, para planner fees of $236 plus GST per hour and administrator fees of $177 plus GST per hour. We also offer fixed fee general advice appointments, with the senior adviser rate being $818.18 plus GST and the adviser rate being $636.36 plus GST.

Unless otherwise agreed, clients are responsible for time charges at normal rates for any pre meeting work done by Andep, the time taken for initial interviews and for Andep’s post meeting note preparation. At the conclusion of the initial interview, Andep will provide a quote for a Statement of Advice (SOA), which if accepted, will be payable by the client on delivery of the SOA. We are able to quote fixed or maximum fees for approval before we commence reporting. An SOA is required when providing personal financial advice to retail clients and will contain specific recommendations and detailed analysis of a client’s financial affairs. Time charges at normal rates, apply for any subsequent contact with or work for the client.

Andep, at its discretion, may waive any fees. It typically waives fees for the lower paid adviser if more than one adviser attends a client meeting. It also typically waives fees for short subsequent conversations.

Unpaid invoices will attract a $50 per month late fee if the invoice is overdue by 28 days or more.

Andep will waive all fees, if at the conclusion of the initial meeting, the client states that the process has been of no value. This needs to be stated either at the end of the meeting or within 2 hours of the meeting's conclusion to ensure no further work is undertaken.
